BUYER AND FAA CONFORMITY – SELLER / SUBCONTRACTOR – DELIVERABLE

Conformity Inspection by an authorized Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) designee is required for goods specified on this contract. Seller is required to provide the FAA Designee with engineering drawings, fabrication and test records and copies of any MRB actions, Seller shall make available all necessary calibrated tools required to perform conformity inspections.

Prior to FAA Conformity Inspection Seller will submit goods to Buyer's Quality Assurance Representative who will initiate and complete FAA Form 8130-9 "Statement of Conformity" upon acceptance of Seller's hardware.

Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative will provide the name of the FAA Designee to be contacted for Conformity Inspection.

Seller shall contact the identified FAA Designee 14 days in advance of the time goods will be available for FAA Conformity Inspection. The original completed FAA form 8130-9 must accompany the goods upon presentation to the FAA Designee.

If those goods specified on this contract for Conformity Inspection by an authorized Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) designee are subcontracted to another facility/subcontractor, Seller is required to contact Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative and request an authorization to complete the FAA form 8130-9 on behalf of Boeing. Then the original completed FAA form 8130-9 must have the authorization letter attached, and both must accompany the goods upon presentation to the FAA Designee.
