No pro rata adjustment shall be made to the invoice for the Goods in respect of an overage. Any rejected Goods shall be returnable at Seller's risk and expense.

a. Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative may, without notice to sureties and in writing, direct changes within the general scope of this Contract in any of the following: (i) technical requirements and descriptions, specifications, statement of work, drawings or designs; (ii) shipment or packing methods; (iii) place of delivery, inspection or acceptance; (iv) reasonable adjustments in quantities or delivery schedules or both; (v) amount of Buyer-furnished property; (vi) terms and conditions of this Contract required to meet Buyer's obligations under superior contracts or subcontracts, which shall take effect from the date specified in the notice provided by Buyer to Seller; and (vii) if this Contract includes services, (a) description of services to be performed; (b) time of performance (e.g., hours of the day, days of the week); and/or (c) place of performance. Seller shall comply promptly with such direction. Except for the rights granted to Buyer under this article 4, a change pursuant to this article 4 shall not give rise to nor authorize any other modification of or amendment to the terms and conditions of this Contract.

b. If such change increases or decreases the cost or time required to perform this Contract, Buyer and Seller shall negotiate an equitable adjustment in the price or schedule, or both, to reflect the increase or decrease. Buyer shall modify this Contract in writing accordingly. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, Seller must assert any claim for adjustment to Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative in writing within 20 days and deliver a fully supported proposal to Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative within 60 days after Seller's receipt of such direction. Buyer may, at its sole discretion, consider any claim regardless of when asserted. If Seller's proposal includes the cost of property made obsolete or excess by the change, Buyer may direct the disposition of the property. Seller has the burden to support the amount of Seller's claim for equitable adjustment. Further, Buyer shall have the right to verify the amount of Seller's claim in accordance with article 18 "Financial Records and Audit". Failure of the Parties to agree upon any adjustment shall not excuse Seller from performing in accordance with Buyer's direction.

c. If Seller considers that Buyer's conduct constitutes a change, Seller shall notify Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative promptly in writing as to the nature of such conduct and its effect upon Seller's performance. Pending direction from Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative, Seller shall take no action to implement any such change.

5. SUSPENSION OF WORK.

a. Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative may, by written order, suspend all or part of the work to be performed under this Contract for a period not to exceed 100 days (the "Period"). Within the Period of any such suspension of work, Buyer is entitled to either: (i) cancel the suspension of work order; (ii) terminate this Contract in accordance with article 6 "Termination for Convenience"; (iii) cancel this Contract in accordance with article 7 "Cancellation for Default" if grounds for default exist; or (iv) extend the stop work period.

b. Seller shall resume work whenever a suspension is canceled. Buyer and Seller shall negotiate an equitable adjustment in the price or schedule or both if: (i) this Contract is not canceled or terminated; (ii) the suspension results in a change in Seller's cost of performance or ability to meet the Contract delivery schedule; and (iii) Seller submits a claim for adjustment within 20 days after the date the suspension is canceled.

6. TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE. Buyer may terminate all or part of this Contract for its sole convenience. In the event of such termination, Seller shall immediately stop all work hereunder and shall immediately cause any and all of Seller's Subcontractors (as such term is defined in article 23.a.) to cease work. Subject to the terms of this Contract, within 90 days after the effective date of termination, Seller may submit to Buyer a claim to be paid a percentage of the Contract price reflecting the percentage of the work performed prior to the effective date of termination, plus reasonable charges that Seller can demonstrate to the satisfaction of Buyer using its standard record keeping system have resulted from the termination. Seller shall not be paid for any work performed or costs incurred which reasonably could have been avoided. Further, Seller shall not be paid and in no event shall Buyer be obligated to pay lost or anticipated profits or unabsorbed indirect costs or overhead. In no event shall Buyer be obligated to pay Seller any amount in excess of the Contract price. The provisions of this article 6 shall not limit or affect the right of Buyer to cancel this Contract for default. Seller shall continue all work not terminated.

7. CANCELLATION FOR DEFAULT.

a. Buyer may, by written notice to Seller, cancel all or part of this Contract if: (i) Seller fails to deliver the Goods within the time specified by this Contract or any written extension; (ii) Seller fails to perform any other provision of this Contract or fails to make progress, so as to endanger performance of this Contract, and, in either of these circumstances, within 10 days after receipt of notice from Buyer specifying the failure, does not cure the failure or provide Buyer with a written detailed plan adequate to cure the failure if such failure reasonably cannot be cured within such 10 days and such plan is acceptable to Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative; and/or (iii) immediately in the event: (a) of Seller's suspension of business; (b) an application is made to any competent Court for a winding up of Seller; (c) Seller is insolvent; (d) Seller is bankrupt; (e) Seller commences negotiation with all or any class of creditors with a view to rescheduling or compromising a debt; (f) a creditor of Seller enforces security; (g) a receiver for Seller's property or business is appointed; or (h) Seller engages in any assignment, reorganization or arrangement for the benefit of its creditors.

Upon direction from Buyer, Seller shall also protect and preserve property in its possession in which Buyer or its customers have an interest.

d. Buyer shall pay the Contract price for completed Goods accepted. In addition, any payment for Manufacturing Materials accepted by Buyer and for the protection and preservation of property shall be at a price determined in accordance with article 6 "Termination for Convenience". Buyer may withhold from any amount due under this Contract any sum Buyer determines to be necessary to protect Buyer or Buyer's customers against loss because of outstanding liens or claims of former lien holders.

e. If, after cancellation, it is determined that Seller was not in default, the rights and remedies of the Parties shall be as if the Contract had been terminated according to article 6 "Termination for Convenience".

f. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Contract, if Seller breaches articles 23.d. "Assignment, Delegation, Subcontracting and Change Of Control"; 18

“Financial Records and Audit”; 28.a. “Business Conduct”; or, otherwise acts in contravention of anti-corruption legislation, Buyer shall have the right to terminate this Contract without notice and with immediate effect. b. Seller shall not be liable to Buyer for any excess re-procurement costs which would otherwise be payable to Buyer pursuant to article 7.b. “Cancellation for Default” where such excess re-procurement costs result from a failure by Seller to perform its obligations under this Contract to the extent that such failure is solely due to a Force Majeure Event provided that the impact of the Force Majeure Event could not have reasonably been avoided or prevented by Seller and Seller has complied with the provisions of article 8.c.

c. Seller shall: (i) as soon as reasonably possible and in any event within 5 days of the commencement of the Force Majeure Event give notice to Buyer setting out details of the nature, extent and anticipated duration of the Force Majeure Event, the expected impact of the Force Majeure Event on its ability to perform its obligations and the steps that it is taking and/or proposes to take to mitigate the effects of the Force Majeure Event, to continue to perform the affected obligations notwithstanding the occurrence of the Force Majeure Event and to ensure that the Force Majeure Event comes to an end, including exercising work-around plans or obtaining the Goods from other sources and taking such steps as may reasonably be required by Buyer; (ii) keep Buyer informed of all developments relating to the Force Majeure Event and the steps being taken to comply with article 8.c.i. and as soon as reasonably possible and in any event within 2 days of the cessation of the Force Majeure Event give notice to Buyer of the cessation of the Force Majeure Event and resume performance of its obligations under the Contract; and (iii) continue to perform all of its obligations under the Contract the performance of which are not prevented by the Force Majeure Event.

b. Buyer shall have the right, exercisable at Buyer's sole discretion, to revoke acceptance and reject the Goods as though they had not been accepted should: (i) Buyer accept defective Goods on the stated assumption that Seller would cure the defect but in respect of such Goods, Seller fails to cure such defect within the time frame specified by Buyer; (ii) Buyer accept the Goods but then subsequently discovers a defect in the Goods which was not reasonably discoverable by Buyer at the time of acceptance; or (iii) Buyer discover a defect in the Goods in respect of which Seller provided Buyer assurances as to conformance prior to Buyer's acceptance.

Seller agrees that any price reduction for the Goods subsequent to its placement but prior to date of delivery thereof shall be applicable to it.
- e. Seller shall supply all supporting information reasonably required by Buyer to substantiate invoices and any other supporting information reasonably required by Buyer to clarify the relevant charges as set out in an invoice submitted by Seller pursuant to article 16(a). Any failure to supply such information shall entitle Buyer to withhold payment in respect of that part not substantiated or clarified until such information is produced to the reasonable satisfaction of Buyer, and such withheld amount shall constitute a disputed payment for purposes of this Contract.

17. TAXES. Unless this Contract specifies otherwise and subject to articles 17.a. and 17.b., the price of this Contract includes, and Seller is liable for and shall pay, all taxes, impositions, charges and exactions imposed on or measured by this Contract except for

 - ii. Where either Party makes a withholding or deduction from a payment as required by applicable law, it shall pay the full amount required to be deducted or withheld to the relevant taxation or other authority within the time allowed for such payment under the laws applicable to the withholding or deduction. Within 30 days of making the payment to the relevant authority, the Party making the withholding or deduction shall provide the other Party with an original or certified copy of a receipt evidencing the payment to the relevant authority.

At all times Seller shall, and ensure that Seller's Subcontractors shall, use suitable precautions to prevent damage to Buyer's property. If any such property is damaged by the fault or negligence of Seller or Seller's Subcontractors thereof, Seller shall, at no cost to Buyer, promptly and equitably reimburse Buyer for such damage or repair or otherwise make good such property to Buyer's satisfaction. If Seller fails to do so, Buyer may do so and recover from Seller the cost thereof on an indemnity basis.

In no event shall the liability of Seller or Seller's Subcontractor thereof be limited to the extent of any of the minimum limits of insurance required herein.

37. PRECEDENCE. All documents and provisions in this Contract shall be read so as to be consistent to the extent practicable. If any term of this Contract is found by any court or body or authority of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, unlawful, void or unenforceable under the laws of any jurisdiction, such term shall be deemed to be severed from this Contract in respect only of such jurisdiction and such severance shall not affect: (i) the legality, lawfulness, or enforceability of such term under the laws of any other jurisdiction; or (ii) the remainder of this Contract which shall continue in full force and effect. In the event of severance of a term as envisaged by this article 38.o., the Parties agree in respect of the jurisdiction in question to adopt a valid and enforceable term (with minimum modification) to replace the severed term, which, to the maximum extent possible, achieves the Parties' original commercial intention and has the same economic effect as the severed term.

Seller shall not process any Personal Data controlled by Buyer except in the performance of and for the purpose of this Contract. Furthermore, Seller shall not transfer any Personal Data controlled by Buyer to any other entity or outside of the EEA without the express written consent of Buyer and without the provisions of the DPA and all applicable data protection law having been satisfied. Seller will have in place adequate technical and organizational security measures so that the confidentiality of this processing complies with the DPA and all applicable data protection laws and regulations. Seller shall immediately provide Buyer with copies of any and all requests by data subjects or regulatory authorities in relation to personal data processed pursuant to this Contract, and notice of any and all data breaches or other unlawful processing of personal data, and shall promptly provide Buyer with any and all assistance that may be required to respond to such requests or breaches. Where such requests relate to Seller's failure to comply with the DPA or other applicable data protection laws and regulations, then such support and any remediation shall be at Seller's expense. Where under this Contract personal data needs to be exported from the EEA, Seller shall agree to execute such data transfer contracts based upon the model contracts published by the article 29 Working Party of the European Commission. Seller shall indemnify, keep indemnified and hold harmless Buyer and Buyer's customers from and against all expenses, contingent liabilities, liabilities, injuries, losses, damages, claims, demands, proceedings, judgments and legal costs (on a full indemnity basis) whether arising in tort (including negligence), breach of contract, breach of statutory duty, collaterally or otherwise which Buyer and/or Buyer's customers incur or suffer arising from breach of this article 42 or any model contract entered into by Seller pursuant to it.

43. SURVIVAL. 44. ENTIRE AGREEMENT.

a. This Contract, together with all purchase orders, annexures, attachments, exhibits, specifications, schedules, supplements and other terms specifically referenced in or attached to this Contract, contains the entire agreement of the Parties and supersedes any and all prior agreements, understandings and communications between Buyer and Seller related to the subject matter of this Contract and upon which neither Party places any reliance.

b. This article 44 does not apply to any statement, representation or warranty made fraudulently, or to any provision of this Contract induced by fraud, for which remedies are otherwise available under English law.

c. Except as authorized herein, no amendment or modification of this Contract shall bind either Party unless it is in writing and is signed by Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative and an authorized representative of Seller.

Boeing and the company to whom this Annex Z has been sent (the “Processor”) have one or more written agreements (collectively, “the Agreements”) pursuant to which the Processor provides services to Boeing (collectively, the “Services”) that may entail the Processing of Personal Data (as defined below).

The European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) imposes specific obligation on Boeing and other companies (controllers) with regard to their vendor relationships. The GDPR requires companies to conduct appropriate due diligence on processors and to have contracts containing specific provisions relating to data protection.

Each of the Agreements contains provisions requiring each party to comply with all applicable laws. This Annex Z documents the data protection requirements imposed upon the parties by the GDPR. This Annex Z is hereby incorporated by reference into each Agreement in order to demonstrate the parties’ compliance with the GDPR.

1. For purposes of this Annex, “GDPR” means Regulation (EU) 2016/679, the General Data Protection Regulation, together with any addition implementing legislation, rules or regulations that are issued by applicable supervisory authorities. Words and phrases in this Annex shall, to the greatest extent possible, have the meanings given to them in Article 4 of the GDPR. In particular:

- a. “Personal Data” has the meaning to give it in Article 4(1) of the GDPR: “any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person; an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person,” but only to the extent such personal data pertain residents of the European Economic Area (EEA) or are otherwise subject to the GDPR.
- b. “Personal Data Breach” has the meaning given to it in Article 4(12) of the GDPR: “[any] breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, personal data transmitted, stored or otherwise processed.”
- c. “Processing” has the meaning given to it in Article 4(2) of the GDPR: “any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction.”
- d. “Sub-processor” means any processor as defined in Article 4(8) of the GDPR: “[any] natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which processes personal data” on behalf of the Processor (including any affiliate of the Processor).
- e. “Transfer” means to disclose or otherwise make Personal Data available to a third party (including to any affiliate or Sub-processor), either by physical movement of the Personal Data to such third party or by enabling access to the Personal Data by other means.

2. In accordance with GDPR Article 28(1), Processor represents that it has implemented appropriate technical and organisational measures in such a manner that its Processing of Personal Data will meet the requirements of the GDPR and ensure the protection of the rights of the data subjects.

3. In accordance with GDPR Article 28(2), the Processor shall not engage any Sub-processor without prior specific or general written authorisation of Boeing. In the case of general written authorisation, the Processor shall inform the Boeing of any intended changes concerning the addition or replacement of other Sub-processors and give Boeing the opportunity to object to such changes. The Processor shall also comply with the requirements for sub-processing as set forth in Article 28(4), namely that the data protection obligations set forth herein (and as my otherwise be agreed by the Processor in the Agreements) such be imposed upon the Sub-processor, so that the Processor's contract with the Sub-processor contains sufficient guarantees that the Processing will meet the requirements of the GDPR.

4. In accordance with GDPR Article 28(3), the following terms are incorporated by reference into the Agreements:

- a. The Processor shall only process the Personal Data only (i) as needed to provide the Services, (ii) in accordance with the specific instructions that it has received from Boeing, including with regard to any Transfers, and (iii) as needed to comply with law (in which case, the Processor shall provide prior notice to Boeing of such legal requirement, unless that law prohibits this disclosure);
- b. Processor shall ensure that persons authorised to process the Personal Data have committed themselves to confidentiality or are under an appropriate statutory obligation of confidentiality;
- c. Processor shall take all security measures required by GDPR Article 32, namely:
 - i. Taking into account the state of the art, the costs of implementation and the nature, scope, context and purposes of processing as well as the risk of varying likelihood and severity for the rights and freedoms of natural persons, the Processor shall implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk, including inter alia as appropriate: (a) the pseudonymisation and encryption of Personal Data; (b) the ability to ensure the ongoing confidentiality, integrity, availability and resilience of processing systems and services; (c) the ability to restore the availability and access to Personal Data in a timely manner in the event of a physical or technical incident; (d) a process for regularly testing, assessing and evaluating the effectiveness of technical and organisational measures for ensuring the security of the processing.
 - ii. In assessing the appropriate level of security account shall be taken in particular of the risks that are presented by processing, in particular from accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to Personal Data transmitted, stored or otherwise processed.
 - iii. The Processor shall take steps to ensure that any natural person acting under the authority of the Processor who has access to Personal Data does not process them except on instructions from Boeing, unless he or she is required to do so by EEA Member State law.

- d. Taking into account the nature of the processing, Processor shall reasonably assist Boeing by appropriate technical and organisational measures, insofar as this is possible, for the fulfilment of Boeing's obligation to respond to requests for exercising the data subject's rights;
- e. Taking into account the nature of processing and the information available to the Processor, Processor shall comply with (and shall reasonably assist Boeing to comply with) the obligations regarding Personal Data Breaches (as set forth in GDPR Articles 33 and 34), data protection impact assessments (as set forth in GDPR Article 35), and prior consultation (as set forth in GDPR Article 36);
- f. At Boeing's discretion, the Processor shall delete or return all the Personal Data to Boeing after the end of the provision of services relating to Processing, and delete existing copies unless applicable EEA member state law requires storage of the Personal Data;
- g. The Processor shall provide Boeing with all information necessary to demonstrate compliance with the obligations laid down in the GDPR, and allow for and contribute to audits, including inspections, conducted by Boeing or another auditor mandated by Boeing; and
- h. The Processor shall immediately inform Boeing if, in its opinion, an instruction infringes the GDPR other Union or Member State data protection provisions.

5. The Processor shall not Transfer any Personal Data (and shall not permit its Sub-processors to Transfer any Personal Data) without the prior consent of Boeing. The Processor understands that Boeing must approve and document that adequate protection for the Personal Data will exist after the Transfer, using contracts that provide sufficient guarantees (such as standard contractual clauses) unless another legal basis for the Transfer exists.

6. The Processor will promptly and thoroughly investigate all allegations of unauthorized access to, use or disclosure of the Personal Data. Processor will notify Boeing without undue delay in the event of any Personal Data Breach.

7. The Processor shall maintain all records required by Article 30(2) of the GDPR, and (to the extent they are applicable to Processor's activities for Boeing) Processor shall make them available to Boeing upon request.
